TNB INTERDISTRICT REPRESENTATION ELIGIBILITY

- a) In order to qualify for selection in Interdistrict tennis, players must play in competitions conducted by this Association.
- b) No player will be considered for selection unless he/she is a registered player and has played in a TNB competition and/or District Championship event during the year 2022, unless otherwise decided by the Council of Management.
- c) Each player must be of age eligibility for the age division they are nominating for.
- d) Must be committed to playing the full competition.
- e) Approval for a reserve will not be permitted for playing another tournament during the representation in the Inter district competition.
- f) Junior players are required to participate in their own age group Cup. Exception - only where they are chosen to represent the No. 1 team of any age group; or, if the Association does not enter a team in the player's age group, can a player participate in a team of a higher age group. (Junior players may play in any team of the Blackwell or Angus & Coote Cups.)

NOTE: *Players making themselves available for Interdistrict tennis do so on the understanding that INTERDISTRICT supersedes all other tennis – ALL TOURNAMENTS AND COMPETITIONS – unless a player is required by the head body of the TNB or NSW Hardcourt Tennis Association or the NSW Tennis Association.
